ON STAGE

"Little Hut," a farce, will open in the Palos Verdes Playhouse, 2514 Via Tejon, Malaga Cove Plaza, July 9 and run for four week-ends through July 31. The hilarious farce will be directed by the prominent local director, Jarl Victor. Mr. Victor, himself a two-time award winner for his acting, has directed some of the peninsula's finest offerings. This production lives up to Mr. Victor's reputation.

The outstanding cast, filled with delightful PV favorites, highlights the Player's Season. "Little Hut" is a gay farce concerning the adventures of three people — a woman, her husband and his best friend, coincidentally also her lover, marooned on a desert island—in dress clothes.

Aima Nelson as the femme fatale, is a familiar face to South Bay theater goers. Miss Nelson, having studied at the University of Michigan, has been seen at Chapel Theatre in "Sunday in New York" and "Marriage-go-Round" and with the PV Players in "Tunnel of Love." While in college she appeared in campus TV productions.

Martin Beckett, the deceived husband, comes to the South Bay Area from London via Canada and New York, where he has appeared in "Dial M for Murder," "The Crucible" and "Happiest Days of Our Lives." Most recently

Mr. Deckett was with the Chapel Theatre in "Becket" and at the PV Playhouse in "Waltz of the Toreadores."

Dick Jordahl, the pessimistic lover, is well remembered by local theater goers and his many fans will be pleased with his portrayal of Henry. In addition to TV appearances and two motion pictures, Mr. Jordahl holds the PV Players Outstanding Actor Award of "Dark at the Top of the Stars." He has appeared with the Players in many light comedies, such as "Gazebo," "Curious Savage" and "Philadelphia Story."

The Players have, undoubtedly, "saved their big guns" for the finale of the season. Clubs and organizations of all sizes are urged to contact the theater for details about Summer Theatre Parties and how to earn money for their cause. Reservations are now being taken for the comedy "Little Hut," opening July 9. Call the theater at 375-7566.

LONG BEACH CIVIC

Few musical comedies in recent years has been eagerly awaited as the Broadway Hit of the 1956 season, "My Fair Lady." A musical adaptation of Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion" it has delighted even dedicated Shavians with an extraordinary mixture of wit, movement and color. With book and lyrics by Alan Jay Lerner and music by Frederick Loewe, "My Fair Lady" is rated as one of the all-time Broadway hits. The show features such songs as "On the Street Where You Live," "Get Me To The Church On Time" and "I've Grown Accustomed To Her Face." The early 20th Century costumes and stage sets makes "My Fair Lady" a show which can best be seen in a full-stage production.

This tune-filled production will open July 8th at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium under the auspices of the Civic Light Opera Association. Marvin Cloyd, long a Civic favorite will be seen in the lead role of Professor Higgins. Nora Coppola, a newcomer to the Civic stage will
